

Weekly News

Academic News- Looking Ahead

Math- Skills: number sequences, using math tools, using data to create charts and graphs, place value, addition and subtraction, money, time, and patterns

Spelling- Skill: long /a/, /i/, and /o/

Words: there, their, about, out, very, know, too, because, found, read, might, few, those, always, show, large

TEST: Thursday, August 25

Grammar- Skill: Sentences: kinds of sentences, parts of sentences
DOL skill practice

Reading- Selection: "Goldilocks and the Three Bears"

Skills: Comprehension, drawing conclusions, cause and effect, phonics, and using a manual

Vocabulary: breakfast, comfortable, cozy, forest, gobbled, hungry, promise

TEST: Friday, August 26

 AR – All students are expected to earn at least 10 AR points this nine weeks. Students should strive to have an accuracy average of at least 80%.

SS/ Science- Test on Map skills on Monday, August 22. Packet completed in class is included in weekly folder to aid in test preparation. Following the test we will be studying Democracy and using our map skills to locate rivers and mountains in the United States. We will also be able to locate North America and Greece.

Vocabulary: council, mayor, county, election, tax, Legislative Branch, monument, Judicial Branch, Executive Branch, Direct Democracy, Representative Democracy, Separation of Powers, Governor, President * A test over these vocabulary terms will be given the week of August 29.

Other Important Announcements

Please review your child's weekly folder, sign the conduct sheet, and return the folder and conduct sheet on the first day of the school week.

Parent Night for third grade is Monday, August 28, at 7:00 P.M. I look forward to seeing you then.