

1968-The Year that Shaped a Generation

President Johnson and the Viet Nam War Protests

Tet Offensive (Vietnamese New Year)

Mc Carthy and the youth campaign

The Civil Rights Movement

Riots in Memphis stemming from garbage strike

MLK killed in Memphis while negotiating

Segregation- George Wallace (gov. of Alabama)

"Say It Loud, I'm Black and I'm Proud" - anthem of the CR Movement by James Brown

African-American movement in clothing and hairstyles

Led to splinter groups like Black Panthers and followers of the teachings of Elijah Mohammed (Malcolm X)

Counter Culture

Marijuana and hard rock, psychedelic rock

Change in consciousness of kids of all races

Jimi Hendrix, Janis Joplin, Jim Morrison

Riots and rebellions on college campuses
(Columbia University - NYC)

Chicago Democratic Convention

RFK killed in LA

Chicago Mayor Daly banned rioting

Aug. 28, 1968—Police Riot

Mayor publicly condemned on National TV

8:45 PM