Reminders:

“Elementary Handbook Reminder:

No pets are allowed on FISD property while students are at school unless authorized by the principal for a preapproved instructional purpose. Those walking students to or from school with pets will not be allowed on FISD property. Those on city sidewalks/public easement should still be cognizant of students walking/riding bikes to and from school for safety considerations. This does not apply to service animals.”

“President Obama intends to address the nation’s school children again this fall. The date has been set for Sept. 28. Parents may view the speech at www.ed.gov We will be showing a recorded portion of this speech at an upcoming GMA on October 7 to coincide with our six pillars of character study of respect, citizenship and responsibility.”
