Next Week in Third Grade We Will be Studying:

Reading: In Reading, we will work on main idea and context clues with the story Amazing Bird Nests.

Social Studies: In Social Studies, we will introduce the 1st nine weeks theme: Community Development." Students will learn about different kinds of communities & read Time for Kids.

Language Arts: In Writing, we will continue working on a fall writing activity about a scarecrow. Students will work on commas to "after an Introductory Word." In handwriting we will continue to practice our cursive writing.

Spelling: In Spelling, we will have a Pre-test on Monday and test on Friday. "40 Ways To Learn Your Spelling Words" is a great practice for your child and don't forget to do a practice test Thursday evening.

Math: In Math, we will continue to focus on counting collections of bills and coins. On Thursday, we will have our Math CBA- it will be over place value, addition and subtraction in problem solving, estimation, and counting money.

Science: In Science, we will be continuing our study of energy with motion and position.
